

Quotations by Eleanor Roosevelt (1884 - 1962), 32nd US first lady (1933 - 1945), UN diplomat, and humanitarian:

attitude "Believe in yourself. You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you stop to look fear in the face. . . You must do that which you think you cannot do."

attitude "Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people."

attitude "I think that somehow, we learn who we really are and then live with that decision."

attitude "No one can make you feel inferior without your consent."

attitude "We gain strength, and courage, and confidence by each experience in which we really stop to look fear in the face... we must do that which we think we cannot."

change "Do one thing every day that scares you."

character "People grow through experience if they meet life honestly and courageously. This is how character is built."

friends / enemies

"Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart."

leadership

"Never let anyone tell you no who doesn't have the power to say yes."

learning / knowledge / wisdom

"Learn from the mistakes of others. You can't live long enough to make them all yourself."

life

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty and power of their dreams."

life

"The purpose of life is to live it, to taste experience to the utmost, to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experience."